CONCLUSION.

SAMANWAY has achieved remarkable progress in this region .Even though there is a much more need to expand the activities of the SAMANWAY to some more other villages, the limited financial resource restricts the expansion. Even though there is a financial crises being faced by the SAMANWAY it is putting its strong steps towards the empowerment of the needy and exploited women in this region. No doubt it has limited financial resources but it has well experienced strong efforts making, ever smiling young and energetic dedicated staff, which is the strength of the SAMANWAY. If the sufficient financial resources is provided anyone can expect a remarkable progress as well as qualitative and quantitative results.

Hence we the staff, members & Board of Directors of Samanway ever grateful to the people and Cooperative societies who have donated generously and supported morally encouraged us to achieve the progress while working with unprivileged deprived rural poor people mainly blind .
